

Through Partner Marketing Automation (TPMA)

DRIVE CHANNEL SALES

Traditional marketing automation tools can't cut through the complexity of today's channel marketing and sales landscape. Your partners need the ability to coordinate and use multiple, integrated marketing activities to stand out from the competition, nurture leads and drive sales. Through Partner Marketing Automation (TPMA) from Zift Solutions empowers channel partners with next-generation digital marketing tools, strategic insight and the direct support they need to succeed.

More Marketing Activities, More Value

TPMA from Zift delivers more value by giving your partners the ability to easily launch multi-tactic co-branded marketing campaigns that deliver results. Help partners build sales pipeline and capture more revenue with turn-key execution of multi-touch campaigns leveraging a wider array of marketing tactics and activities, including newsletters, email, online advertising, telemarketing and more. Behavioral segmentation and detailed lead scoring across multiple touch points generate more qualified leads for partners. Plus, built-in analytics measure results and closed-loop reporting empowers a more collaborative sales process.

Drive Partner Engagement Through Connections

Complete CRM and ERP integration means your partners don't have to leave the systems they use most to access the TPMA tools they need — which boosts engagement, opportunities and improves visibility while reducing costs. Better lead qualification strategies improve demand generation and detailed lead scoring across multiple prospect touch points helps partners prioritize and customize outreach. You gain direct visibility into partner activities for a more collaborative sales process and closed-loop analytics measure results while fostering partner accountability.
